Scriptures...

Psalm 79:1-9

O God, the nations have invaded your inheritance;
 they have defiled your holy temple,
 they have reduced Jerusalem to rubble.
 They have left the dead bodies of your servants
 as food for the birds of the sky, the flesh of your own people for the animals of the wild.
 They have poured out blood like water
 all around Jerusalem,
 and there is no one to bury the dead.
 We are objects of contempt to our neighbors,
 of scorn and derision to those around us.
 How long, LORD? Will you be angry forever?
 How long will your jealousy burn like fire?
 Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not acknowledge you, on the kingdoms
 that do not call on your name;
 for they have devoured Jacob and devastated his homeland.
 Do not hold against us the sins of past generations;
 may your mercy come quickly to meet us,
 for we are in desperate need.
 Help us, God our Savior,
 for the glory of your name;
 deliver us and forgive our sins
 for your name's sake.

1 Timothy 2:1-7

I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people— for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness. This is good, and pleases God our Savior, who wants all people to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth. For there is one God and one mediator between God and mankind, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as a ransom for all people. This has now been witnessed to at the proper time. And for this purpose I was appointed a herald and an apostle—I am telling the truth, I am not lying—and a true and faithful teacher of the Gentiles.
